15 GIRLS BEGIN WORK IN OPEN AIR SCHOOL

Hope to Surpass at Bryn Mawr Results of Present System of Education.

TSE JAPANESE PAVILION

Children Carefully Selected for Fitness From Many Applicants.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8 .- Fifteen rosy pecked kirls between the ages of 8 tebe Anna Thorne open air model oud parents, Dr. Thomas and datilda Castro, the head of the school, lapanese payllion, in which the lasses will eventually be held, is completed and all the equipment nool is not ready. But the au-f the institution wanted to get d sessions will be held for about Dolgelly Hall, which later will bad weather. cmas and Dr. Castro were en-about the first class. The chilof them members of prominent families, were picked from a ber of applicants. The original wenty, but this was changed d five or six little ones had ed. Under the system which d at the Bryn Mawr school, if which were given to-day, girls are expected in time to educated by another system heir graduation from the lowe. will probably enter Bryn or some other institution or living and learning will inued. Each year a new class started at Bryn Mawr, and at the even years there will be seven like the one which is now near-t and most nearly perfect chil-instructors at the school could ng the many whose parents were at they should enter.

Tof Dr. Thomas and others with and interested in the to show what results can be employing the most advanced education that have been tried to be satisfactory in an open astro made it clear that the appeal lirawing lessons is to be the dynamic

Here the idea is to have the get the direction of line; not a d picture but a direction of move

The children are to feel motion firection of movement when they a piece of sculpture or any other Dr. Castro said that many of the ings produced among the fifteen toery surprising. oached by the phonetic method, with hope of producing a perfect pronun-on first. In the English lesson, or t is called, "the class in literature," was a reading from Maeterlinck's "Elue Bird," during which the children interpreted gestures and subsequently were called upon to decide which character they liked the best. The majority are said to have favored the little boy rather than the little girl.

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

ft $5,000 each to the Protestant pal Home of Richmond, Va.; the pal High School near Alexandria, of the Monumental Church in Rich-She gave her jewelry, books and graphs to Mary Hall Sayre of 14 Forty-eighth street. The residuary went in trust to her sisters, Julia farrison of Tunstall, Va., and Anned of Clayville, Va., and after their wreath of orange blossoms, was caught with flowers to a court train of brother trusted in the same of the same thirteen nephews and ten nieces ans Basch, who died on September est and was the father of Mrs. Emma wife of Police Captain John J. sister married Charles F. othing to his daughter and getts who was not related to him. HETTA RODE, who died at Baden Germany, on September 24, left to two adopted daughters. Elsa venty-eighth street, and her adopted ughter, Martha Leigh. AC O. WOODRUFF, who died July 12 left no will, but gave his entire esleft no will, but gave his entire es-worth more than $25,000, to his son, AD SIEMON, who died March 3 last left more than $60,000. daughter-in-law, Blanche Sie-Rogers, who died in Boston Institute and the Fisher-Seamen's Widows' and Aid Society of Gloucester, Mass., Franklin Typographical Society n, and the bulk of the estate to NA UNGER, who died September 20.

estate of $145,273. She gay each to her daughters. m, whose husband is manager al Astor and son of the pro-ara Voelker, Linda Kretsch-de Liagre and Olga Hale. She in real estate.

LLEBRAND, a liquor dealer, ebruary 27, 1912, left $39.041 ow. Helen Hillebrand. One of ppraised of no value was a ner Police Captain John W. smissed from the force, for a -Supreme Court Justice Samuel Evans, who are grandseventh of his estate, to extheir interest in the Hoe real or shares in the Robert Hoe Estate Inc., which is to issue 6.975 stock to the Hoe heirs. The decided that by taking stock in the langing assets which are easil for unconvertible assets and would be minority stockholders The court also found that the really represent the owner-estate worth $1,966,300.

reathed $2,000 to Mary Morris, a tres abroad. $10,000 to Julia A. Beals, a daugh-Beals, until he is 25 years old h the Flushing residence and me-half of the residue of the to another grandson, John E.

Mrs. Wilson Buys Newport Bungalow attendants were the Misses Gladys Handy.

After the Charpy Neck Bealty attendants were the Misses Gladys Handy.

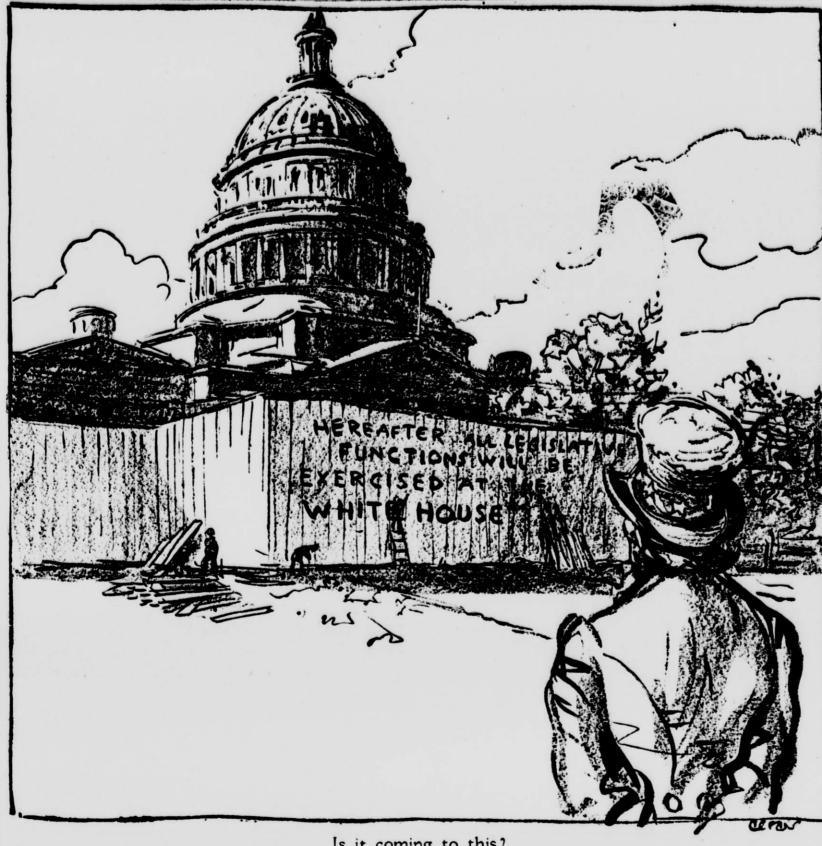

Attendants were George H. Dailell, Fred B.

Attendants were George H.

Attendants were George H.

Attendants were George H.

A

Is it coming to this?

MISS ROSA METZNER A BRIDE.

Wedded to Major Foley Yesterday at Lake Ronkonkoma.

LAKE RONKONKOMA, L. I., Oct. 8.—
Miss Rosa A. Metzner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Metzner, whose country home is Lake Towers, was married this forencon to Major Frank Joseph Foley, son of James A. Foley of 316 East Eighteenth street, Manhattan, A nuptial mass was celebrated in St. Joseph's Church here by Auxiliary Bishop Mandelein of the Brooklyn diocese, assisted by a number of other clerkymen. sisted by a number of other clergymen. Nahan Franko's stringed quartet ren-dered the bridal march from "Lohengrin." accompanied by the pipe organ. Casparisang Gounod's "Ave Maria" and Marie Lutz, Carl Kaiser and Marcus Kellermann followed with selections.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin

of the bride: Col. George R. Dyer, N. G.
N. Y.; Wentworth Tucker and Harry
Ashmore of Manhattan.
Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Petit Trianon in Ronkonkoma.

Special parlor cars brought and returned guests to New York and Brooklyn. The bride was graduated in 1910 from Joseph's Academy at Brentwood. Major Foley is with the brokerage firm of C. I. Hudson & Co., 36 Wall street, Manhattan, the Army and Navy and the Anawanda clubs. He is a former Captain of the Twelfth Regiment of Infantry and is now quarter-master of the First Brigade. He served on the staff of Gov. Dix.

After their wedding Mr. and Mrs. Foley

MISS JAYNE WEDS IN LONDON.

New York Girl Bride of Kenueth Bissel of Riverside, Cal.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, Oct. 8.—Josephine Jayne daughter of Mrs. Edith Jayne of Ne York, was married at St. George's, Hanover Square, to-day to Kenneth Bissel of Riverside, Cal., son of Mrs. Hector Gelger of Andrecy, France, where the bride and her mother were guests last summer. The wedding was originally set for November 20, at the St. Regis Hotel, New not wait.

Only close friends of the families were present at the wedding. A breakfast at Claridge's followed, and then Mr. and Mas. Bissel left for a honeymoon trip of six weeks in Spain and Portugal. They will reside at Riverside, where Mr. Bissel has an orange farm.

Mrs. Jayne and her sister, Mrs. Zeman, will sail for New York on the Cedric

Los Angeles, Oc. 8.—Kenneth Bissel, who married Josephine Jayne in London to-day, is a wealthy Yale graduate, 28 years old, owning the finest orange groves on Victoria avenue, Riverside, His grandon Victoria avenue. Riverside. His grand-mother was Mrs. Clarence Eddy, the great there home, 38 Parsons avenue, queens, on December 27 of last an estate valued at $88,036.13. and her mother in Egypt and other countries and estate valued at $88,036.13. and her mother in Egypt and other countries as the street of the street was Mrs. Clarence Eddy, the great mother was Mrs. Clarence Eddy, the great mother

Fenwick-Handy.

Harry Jevins Penwick of San Antonio, the Kerner of the Redeemer, Bishop J. S. Jr., of this city took place last night at the Hotel Gotham, the Rev. Dr. John S. Johnston of the West Texas discesse officiating. The bride had Miss Elia M. Doherty as her maid of honor. Her other the Sehenectady, N. Y., was best man. The ushers were George H. Dalzell, Fred B. Dalsell, Jr., George W. Hall and A. Presby Collum.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's brother-in- at the home of the will give Manch at the Equinox House from Mrs. At the Equinox House from New York included Mr. and Mrs. A tree Equinox House from New York included Mr. and Mrs. A tree Equinox House from New York included Mr. and Mrs. A tree Equinox House from New York included Mr. and Mrs. Tex., took place last night in the Church of the Reedeemer, Brooklyn. Bishop J. S. Johnston of the West Texas diocese officiating. The bride had Miss Elia M. Doherty as her maid of honor. Her other attendants were the Misses Gladys Handy.

Miss Madeline Faber, daughter of Judge Leander B. Faber of 78 Alsop street, Ja-maica, Queens, was married yesterday afternoon in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, that place, to Walter Rossiter Church, that place, to Walter Rossiter Redmond, a Brooklyn lawyer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Scheffel, rector of the church. Edward Redmond, the bridesroom's brother, was best man. Mrs. John A. Moran of Lawrence, L. L. the bride's cousin, was matron of honor. The bride wore white charmeuse trimmed with duchess lace, chiffon and orange blossoms. There was a recention later in the east room of the a reception later in the east room of the Waldorf-Astoria, where sixty guests were seated at a horseshoe table. After their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Redmond will live in Brooklyn.

Cleaveland-Holler.

Miss Catherine Marie Holler, grandcaded satin. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore as her only jewelry a crown brooch of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. Her sister, Miss Alma Metzner, was her maid of honor.
The bridesmaids were Miss Madeline Young of Lakewood, N. J.; Miss Claire Robinson of Philadelphia, Miss Belle Browne of Brooklyn and Ronkonkoma and Miss Kathryn Foley of New York, a sister of the bridegroom. Major Foley's brother.
Senator James A. Foley, was best man.
The ushers were Nicholas Metzner, brother of the bride; Col. George R. Dyer, N. G.
N. Y.; Wentworth Tucker and Harry
Ashmore of Manhattan.

Watching the European production attracted a large audience, blauder diamy and the reports of the European production attracted a large audience, whith followed with the closest attention the very creditable performance by the theatre company.

"Der Gute Ruf" shows much of the spood craftmanship and the admirable construction that has distinguished much of Sudermann's work for the stage, but at the same time it disclosed an articlearly and a lack of live human inticeially and a lack of live human of tulle was caught up with orange blos, soms. She carried a shower bouquet of lities of the valley and gardenias. A small reception and dance followed the

Girand-Hayes.

Miss Florence A. Hayes, daughter of the late William Hayes of Flatbush, Brooklyn, who was a stock broker, was married last evening in the Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, to Francis Arthur Glraud, treasurer of Keith's Orhpeum Theatre. The Rev. Dr. Frank M. Townley, rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, performed the ceremony, after which a wedding supper was served. The maid of honor was Miss Anna Williamson of Flat-bush. The bridesmaids were the Misses Elizabeth and Mildred Holman, cousins of the bride. The best man was Vernor

Gucker-Micoline.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Micolino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Micolino, and Harry J. Gucker took place last night at the Hotel Savoy, the Rev. Dr. George C. F. Haas of this city officiating, Because of the recent death of the bride-grounds, father the ceremony was colegroom's father the ceremony was colebrated quietly. The bride's sister, Mrs. Frederick Victor Calder, was matron of honor, and Miss Caroline Gucker, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. The Misses Edna Sauer and Ruth Rebliam were flower girls. Frederick V. Calder, Jr., was the pake. Paul F. Lahm was best man, and the ushers were Matthew Miccino. Jr., and Albert E. Gucker.

Miss May Dauenhauer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dauenhauer, was married last night to Frederick H. Knocke of this city at the home of her parents, 62 West Sixty-ninth street. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Mgr. Matthew Taylor, rector of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament. The bride had the Blessed Sacrament. The bride had her sister, Miss Rose Dauenhauer, as her only attendant. George H. Diehl, Jr., was best man. After the ceremony there was a reception and Mr. and Mrs. Knocke left

"Der Gute Ruf" Well Acted at Irv- Will ing Place Theatre.

"Der Gute Ruf"-At the Irving Place Theatre. ..... Ernst Robert Baron von Tanna . Heinrich Marlow Charlotte Krause Dorrit Ernst Holznagel

theatres to produce any piece that Her-mann Sudermann writes, and perhaps it was the pursuance of this rule that induced Director Christians of the Irving Place Theatre to make last night the first presentation here of the newest of this dramatist's work, "Der Gute Ruf" (The Miss Catherine Marie Holler, grand- author and the reports of the European

The piece, in fact, was not Sudermann at his best. The lack of action, the long speech and the effort to build up a play on a very slender foundation might be held responsible for its failure to a decidedly favorable impression in a decidedly favorable impression in spite of the hard and conscientious work of the two principal roles were thos of the two women Karla and Dorrit. The former was played with considerable force and distinction by Greta Meyer, and the latter with a great deal of spirit by a new member of the company, Charlotte Krause.

Ernst Robert made Wiessegger a rather heavy man of affairs. Heinrich Marlow heavy man of affairs. Heinrich Marlow as Baron von Tanna was the ideal weal-thy German of family.

Max was acceptably done by Rudolf Aicher and Ernst Holznagle did wel with the small part of Direktor Schroedt

E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe will present "Macbeth" for the first time during their present engagement at the Man-hattan Opera House to-night. "Macbeth" will be the bill for the rest of the week. The 100th performance of "The Pass-ing Show of 1913" at the Winter Garden will be given to-night.

The Princess Theatre will open its seaon to-night with five new one act plays, "Felice," "The Bride." "A Pair of White Gloves," "En Deshabille" and "The Black

Harrison Grey Fiske will begin rehearsals to-day of "The Honey Bee," a com-Bunner. The cast will include Allan Pollock, Eugene E. Hohenwart, Benjamin Kauser, Fanny Hartz, Marie Shotwell, Marion Pullar and Charles and Helen Millington. Before its production in New washington and Baltimore early in

Tourists by Automobile. LENOX, Mass., Oct. 8.—Automobile arrivals at the Hotel Aspinwall to-day in-

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Trimm, Mrs. C. P Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Cady of New York, Pierce; Mr. and Mrs. James L. Wilson, Miss Mabel Wilson, Miss Helen Wilson of Philadelphia. Packard for a trip to the South. They will live in this city.

Rosenberg—Guggenbeim.

Rosenberg—Guggenbeim.

The wedding of Miss Myrtle Margaret

York

York

To La Birch of Jersey City, Simplex; Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Pomeroy, Packard; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tyson, Alco; Mr. nad Mrs. John J. Downey, Stevens, all of New York

law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. SUDERMANN PLAY DISAPPOINTS. MRS. FISH TO GIVE A DANCE. Be for the Girls' Club She Formed in Hot Springs.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Oct. 8 .- Mrs. Stuy vesant Fish, before her departure for Garrison, N. Y., will give a dinner and dance next Wednesday night at the Daniel Boone log cabin for the girls' club, which she has been instrumental in form-ing for the bath attendants. The club with Mrs. Fish, Mrs. French.

and Mrs. Walter, held a meeting last night in Mrs. Walter's apartments in the Homestead, and elected officers. Nearly $500 has been contributed by Mrs. Fish, Mrs. J. R. Dilworth, Mrs. E. William E. Scull, Mrs. C. L. King and Mrs. E. J. Berwind, Mrs. A. W. Biddle, Mrs. Walter Berwind, Mrs. A. W. Biddle, Mrs. Walter and others for furnishing.

Tennis players are practising daily for the tournament beginning Monday, Miss Gladys Ingalls and H. P. Homans de-feated Miss Julia Robins and Fred C. In-man in three sets out of four to-day, Watching the playing under majoness. Watching the playing und hattan. He was graduated from Yal

Notes of the Social World.

Miss Mildred Van Schaick, daughte married to Arthur Gwynne, son of the Rev. Dr. Walker Gwynne of Summit, N. J., this afternoon in the Church of N. J., this afternoon in the Church of the Transfiguration. A small reception will follow at the home of the bride mother, 12 East Thirty-first street. The wedding of Miss Anna Doroth keepsie. A reception will follow at the hurst mountain, to-morrow a home of the bride's uncle. D. Crosby members of the younger set, foster. Capt. Master and his bride will her gather the mushrooms. Mrs Jesse Hoyt and Miss Isabel Hoyt now at Little Forest Farm, in New Canaan, Conn., will go to Princeton, N. J., early next month. They will not re-turn to their New York home this winter Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sabin have taken for the winter the house of Mrs. J. Russell Soley, 22 East Fifty-sixth F

Mr. and Mrs. Percy R. Pyne and Miss Pyne have returned from Uptor Pyne, Bernardsville, N. J., to 680 Parl avenue.

The wedding of Miss Anne Loomis daughter of Mrs. John W. Dyar, to J. Henry Alexandre of this city will take place in Detroit, Mch., on November 29. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Guinness and their children, who have been in Europe country place, the Maples, at Milton Point, Rye. N. Y., and is at 19 East Fifty-seventh street for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Anderson have Capt. and Mrs. Isaac E. Emerson of Baltimore are visiting Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt at the Hotel Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Casimir De Rham Moore Thirty-eighth street early next month.

FRANCIS H. LEE DEAD.

Was Son of Founder of Old Boston Banking Firm.

TON, Oct. 8 .- Francis H. Lee, son of John Clarke Lee, one of the founders of the banking house of Lee, Higginson & Co., in Boston, died at his home in Salem last night, after a long illness.

He was 77 years old.

Mr. Lee was the last of his own genera-tion of the family of Lees, noted in Boston commercial and social life.

COL. JAMES J. SMITH.

of Its Veteran Commanders. The Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory was draped in mourning last night for Col. James J. Smith, the last of the veteran commanders of the regiment, who died yesterday morning in Cleveland. Col. Smith went with the Sixty-ninth to the civil war as sergeant of Company C and fought in all its engagements. He was wounded in the leg at Ream's Sta-tion. As Lieutenant-Colonel he led the remnant of his regiment back to New He organized the Smith & Oby Steam Heating Company of Cleveland and was president of the concern up to the time of his death. He was commander of the Grand Army of the Republic in Cleve-

THE REV. W. S. ADAMSON.

Pastor of American Church at Nice for Many Years.

Special Cable Despatch to Tuz Stx.

Nice, Oct. 8.—The Rev. W. S. Adamson, or many years pastor of the American Church here, died to-day, at the age of Word was received in New York yesterday of the death of William Crozier, editor of the Manila Daily Bulletin, in Manila, Philippine Islands, about ten days ago. He died of bubonic plague. Mr. Crozier went to the Philippines at the time the United States occupied the islands. He was one of the founders of the American Soldier Boy, which the soldiers edited and published. Afterward he acquired the Manila American, and next became editor of the Manila Daily Bulletin. He became widely known and had great influence throughout the Philippine Islands. "He was a splendid man," said Patrick Gallagher, a writer and former associate of Crozier, "and was loved by the Filipinos and respected throughout the Philippines, He had planned to return to this country within a few weeks for a vacation." Mr. Crozier married Mary Latham, head of the army nursing corps in the Philippines, who survives him.

a few weeks for a vacation." Mr. Crozier married Mary Latham, head of the army nursing corps in the Philippines, who survives him.

John A. Megargee.

John A. Megargee.

John A. Megargee, who for twentyfive years up to 1395 was the Hariem superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, died of a complication of diseases at 10 o'clock last evening at the age of 58 years. He had been ill for several years. He was born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, where his father, mother, one sister and a brother still for several years. He was born in Chester county. Pennsylvania, where his father, mother, one sister and a brother still live. Another brother, Dr. George 1, Megargee, lived with him at 1 East 124th street. Mr. Megargee was fond of horses and owned some of the best that were trotted on the Speedway. He was a director of the Twelfth Ward Bank. The burial will be at his former home in Pennsylvania.

"Experience shows that a woman after she is a mother makes a better teacher, a more sympathetic instructor and harder worker. Surely she commits no crime when she fulfils a natural function.

"The State, by means of factory laws and short hour laws, protect the millions of women who work. Is the Board of Education to do less? Is the board going to deny a woman the chance to make a Pennsylvania.

David Grabam Baird.

Prof. Charles F. Richardson.

Sugar Hill, N. H., Oct. 8.—Prof. affect conditions very much. He Charles Francis Richardson, long of the clear as to which side he leaned. morning at his home here of pneumonia He was 62 years old. He retired in 1911 after twenty-nine years' service in the chair of English language and literature

Nicholas L. Cort, founder and for years head of the metal firm of N. L. seum Cort & Co. of Water street, died on Tuesday at his home, 112 St. Mark's ave-and five daughters survive him.

Pennsylvania Railroad at Long Island street. Brooklyn, in his thirty year. He was a member of the

ARRIVALS AT WHITE SULPHUR.

Many New Guests at the Greenbries -Mushroom Lancheon.

Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil White Sulfitus Springs, W. Va., Oct. W. H. Jones, to Capt. H. F. Hopkins S.—Miss Tryphena Reed will give a mush-room luncheon at the Reed villa, several place to-day in Christ Church, Pough-miles up the Jericho Draft on the Cakmiles up the Jericho Draft on the Oak-hurst mountain, to-morrow afternoon for members of the younger set, who will help

W. T. Noonan, president of the Roches-ter, Pittsburg and Buffalo Railroad, arrived in a private car this morning with a party including O'Donnell Iselin, George E. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Jenkins, to spend the fall season.

To-day's arrivals at the hotel include

W. C. Lambert of Buenos Ayres, Mrs. J. Stuart White, Mrs. William J. Eaton, Mrs. F. Ogden Duther, C. D. Woodhouse of New York, Charles E. Echols of West Point and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Thorn

Albert B. Kerr's Bachelor Dinner. Albert B. Kerr, son of the late Senator James Kerr of Pennsylvania, who will marry Miss Rosamond Burr, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Burr, at the home of her parents in Cedarhurst, their children, who have been in Europe I. I. on Saturday, gave his farewell for nearly a year, are expected to return to New York to-day. They will go to their home in Washington Square.

William M. Sullivan has closed his country place, the Maples, at Milton Weker St. Club, Among R. E. Pinchot, Henry G. Gray, Sumner Gerard, Joseph S. Wheelwright, Willard D. Straight, Lanier Mekker, Dr. Curcius Gillatte, Philip H. Mekker, Dr. Curcius Gillatte, Philip H. McKee, Dr. Curtenius Gillette, Philip H Bailey, Nathan A. Smyth, Edwin C. Holter, Grosvenor Nicholas, John F. T. mage, Edwin R. Marvin, Cornelius Mr. and Mrs. Horace Anderson have taken for the winter the house of Mrs. Kitchel, William Greenough, Arthur C. H. Van Rensselaer Kennedy, 42 East Fifty-second street.

Kitchel, William Greenough, Arthur C. Train, Anson McCook Beard, Graham Sumner, Alfred L. Loomis and Gerald Sumner, Alfred L. Loomis and Gerald C. M. Livingston of this city; Richard C. Storey of Boston and G. Clymer Brooke

DIED.

ALTMAN .-- On Tuesday, October 7, Bent Altman, at his residence, 626 Fifth avenue. Funeral services will be held at the Temple Emanu-El, Fifth avenue and Forty-third street, on Friday morning, October 10, at 9:30 o'clock. Interment private. It is earnestly requested that flowers be sent. OCKER .- On Tuesday, October 7, at her residence, 62 East Fifty second street Alicia D., widow of Eben B. Crocker, in the 97th year of her age.

Funeral services at house. Friday, October 10. At 4 o'clock. Boston papers

MRS. PEIXOTTO LOSES 'MOTHERHOOD' FIGHT

Is Dismissed From Position as Principal by Board of Education.

Staty-ninth Regiment Mourns Last DR. WILE PLEADS IN VAIN

Calls Ban on Babies "Anti-Social"-Points to Rules in Other States.

Mrs. Bridget C. Peixotto, principal of Public School 14, The Bronx, who was suspended on April 22 by District Superintendent Taylor because she was absent from school to become a mother, was dismissed yesterday by the Board of Education. The members, by a vote of 27 to 5, accepted the majority report of the committee on elementary schools, which recommended her dismissal. Dr. Ira S. Wile, who presented the minority report, made an appeal on the floor for the retention of Mrs. Peixotto.

The board then instructed the superintendent of schools to investigate and report all similar instances of "neglect

"The eyes of the nation are turned toward New York in this matter," said Dr. Wile in making his plea for Mrs. Peixotto. "The finger of scorn has been William Crozier.

Word was received in New York yesterday of the death of William Crozier.

We have taken. The press throughout the land has censured us for the way we have treated this teacher, and the to deny a woman the chance to make a living just because she becomes a mother?

David Graham Baird.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 8.— David Grahad Baird. 58 years old, known all over the United States as a chess player, died to-day at his home. 233 West Grand street. He was born in New York city and practised law there until recently. He moved to this city seven years ago. At one time he held the chess championship of New York State. He took part in matches in Europe. Mr. Baird is survived by a wife and six children.

mother?

"Such a plan is anti-social. More than that, it is contrary to the laws of nature and the laws of God. It is contrary to public policy and the public conscience."

"My ideas may be old fashioned," said M. S. Stern, chairman of the committee but I do not believe we should allow will have a chaotic condition. I am sure."

Mrs. Ella W. Kramer then made a motion that City Superintendent Dr. W. H. Maxwell express his views on the matter. Dr. Maxwell said that he believed accept-Dr. Maxwell said that he believed accept-ance of the minority report would not affect conditions very much. He was not

In New York To-day. Memorial meeting in honor of Mayor Gaynor, Carnegie Hall, 8:15 P. M. General convention of Protestant Episopal Church, Cathedral of St. John the Reception to Episcopal Bishops, deputies and their friends, Metropolitan Mu-seum of Art. 8 P. M. Meeting of New York County Law-

Association, Hotel Astor, 8:30

Meeting of New York Library Club. Paul M. J. Liess.

Paul M. P. Liess, a mechanical engineer and foreman of the power station of the street, 8:30 P. M.

DIED.

EVARTS .- On Tuesday. October 7, 1918, at his residence, at Windsor, Vt., in the alst year of his age. Maxwell, youngest of the late William M. and Helen

M. Evaris.
Funeral services at St. Paul's Church. Windsor, Friday morning, October 10, at GEDDES -On Wednesday, October 1, 1913.

at his residence, 328 Clinton avenue Brooklyn. Peter Geddes. Funeral private. HILDRETH -Suddenly, on October 7. Ruth Laura Hildreth, beloved daughter of Walter E. and Hannie Lanson Hildreth.

raged 29 years 5 months. Funeral at 8t Gabriel's Church, Ham-mondsport, N. V. at 10 A. M., Friday, October 10, Burial New York later. ASINI - Matilda. Services. "THE PU-NERAL CHURCH." 241 West Twenty third street (Frank Campbell Building) evening, 8 o'clock. mobile cortege. MASTER .- October 7. Anna McMaster, aged 30. Services at Stephen Merritt's Chapel, 228

Eighth avenue, near Twenty-first stree Friday, 1 o'clock. MEGARGEE .- At his residence. 1 East 124th street, October 8, 1913, John A. Megargee, in his 58th year. Notice of funeral hereafter. Philadelphia papers please copy.

MONROE -Entered into rest, October 3, 1913. Elizabeth Monroe, aged 64 years. Funeral services at her late residence. 153 West 117th street. Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock. HOMPSON .-- At her residence, 301 West Ninety-first street. New York, on Tues day, October 7, 1913, in her seventy-fire year. Ellen Thompson, relict of John Thompson, mother of Aifred J. Thompson. William Nelson Thompson, Vincent John Thompson and Jane B. Thompson, Funeral at St. Gregory's Church. West Ninetieth street, on Thursday, October

9. at 11 A. M. TODD .-- At New Brighton, Staten Island. Tuesday night. October 7, 1913, Mary, Ellen, widow of John Todd and daughter of the late Clement S. and B. Eleanor Parsons of Brooklyn, N. Y. Funeral services at Christ Church Chapel. Franklin avenue. New Brighton, Staten sland, on Friday, October 10. at 11:36

UNDERTAKERS.

FRANKE CAMPBELL 2413 W ARROW MOTOR HEARSES HOR

CREMATORIES.

INTELLIGENT, scientisc and sanitary method.
UNITED STATES CREMATION COMPANS.
Middle Village, L. I. Pamphlets free.
Phone SITE Williamsburg.